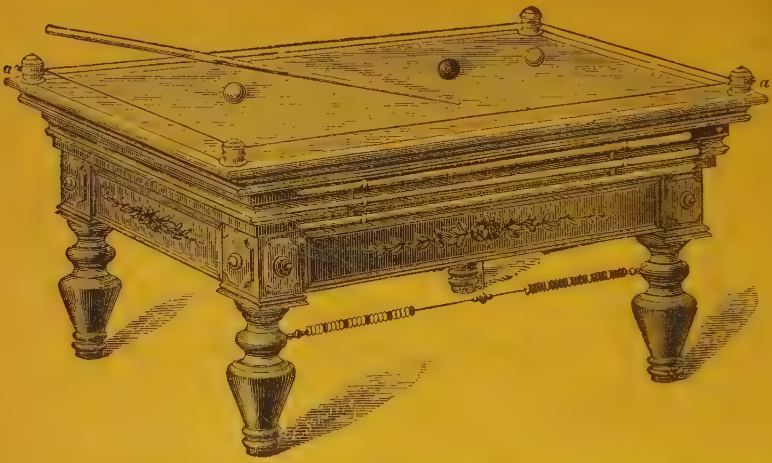
E GREATEST WONDER OF OUR TIMES

IS THE



Mathewson World-Renowned Suspended Wire Cushion Combination

PARLOR BILLIARD TABLE.

Now on exhibition at the Palace Hotel, No. 28 New Montgomery Street, where parties can see its beauty and general feasibility, and all its practical workings.

We are now prepared to furnish the Trade and families with different styles and prices, as follows:

	Slate Composit, Ivory Balls, Cues, Etc.	With Wooden Balls.	With Wooden Bed.
SIZE, 20 x 40 inches	$ 35 00	$ 27 50	$ 25 00
" 28 x 56 "	75 00	65 00	60 00
" 36 x 72 "	125 00	....	117 00
" 48 x 96 "	175 00	....	165 00
" 54 x 108 "	200 00	....	180 00

They are made of the best material and thoroughly substantial, and in such a manner that they can, in five minutes, be taken apart to be stored or packed, and as soon set up again ready for use. Sizes ranging from 18 by 36 inches to 46 by 92 inches, and larger if desired, by special order.

Those who have tried them pronounce them superior to any table now in use. They are causing lots of wonder because of their simplicity, beauty and general practicability. The balls roll with lightning rapidity from angle to angle.

Thousands of people visit our place of exhibition daily, and are so greatly amused at its workings that they are giving orders far in excess of our present ability to furnish them. However, in a few days, with extra workmen, we will be ready to fill all orders as fast as they come in.

Our motto is justice to all. Come one, come all, and see the new California invention. We are filling orders from Portland, (Oregon), Chicago, Salt Lake, Nevada, Mexico, Arizona and the interior, as they are just the thing for all hot and wet climates. All standards are Nickel Plated and beautifully ornamented in the most elegant style.

Address all communications to No. 28 New Montgomery street, Palace Hotel. Mathewson's Combination Parlor Billiard Table Manufacturing Co.

Caveat filed and Patent applied for.

PACIFIC
BUSINESS COLLEGE
320 Post St., opp. Union Square.

The design of this institution is to impart such an education as will best prepare students for the practical affairs of life. It provides thorough, systematic and practical courses of instruction, and employs a full corps of competent and faithful teachers. Every available modern improvement has been introduced, and whatever a liberal expenditure of money and well-directed energy could do, has been done to make the school what it should be, and to maintain for it a reputation worthy of its rank.

The Business Course, both theoretical and practical, is as near perfection as it is possible to make it. The system of Actual Business Training employed is unsurpassed, students receiving the same practice in conducting business affairs as though they were in a bona fide bank, office, or counting-house. Practical Penmanship is made the subject of daily drill.

The Academic Course affords an excellent opportunity for persons of any age to obtain thorough instruction in Spelling, Reading, Writing, etc., the Higher Mathematical branches, and the Modern Languages.

The Telegraphic Course is well calculated to make proficient operators. It includes careful instruction in sound and paper operating, setting up of instruments, management of batteries, use of switches and ground wires, etc.

General Information.—Day and Evening Sessions during the entire year. Students can enter at any time. Ladies are admitted to all the departments of the school. Individual instruction is given. Life Scholarships for the complete Business Course are issued at $70.

DIRECTIONS FOR KEY-HOLDERS.—Upon the discovery of a fire near your signal-box, turn the crank slowly and steadily about twenty-five or thirty times, then wait a few moments, and if you hear no alarm on the large bells, turn as before. If you still hear no alarm, go to the next box and give the alarm from that. Never open the box or touch the crank except in case of fire. Never signal for a fire seen at a distance. Do not give an alarm for a burning chimney. Be sure your box is locked before leaving it. Upon a second alarm being struck for the same fire it will be considered a general alarm. Second alarms will be turned in only by order of the Chief Engineer or his Assistants.

Keys of the signal boxes are deposited in the vicinity of each box, at such places as are indicated upon cards placed thereon.

Boxes designated with a star are Automatic ones. An alarm from these is given by pulling down the hook once and letting go, unerring mechanism doing the rest.

Complaints concerning the working of the Fire Alarm Telegraph, irregular striking of the bells and gongs, broken wires, etc., should in all cases be made at the Fire Alarm Office, Brenham Place.

In case of tumult or riot, whereby the services of the Police force are required, an alarm will be given, consisting of ten strokes upon the bells and gongs, repeated five times, which will be a signal for the Police to assemble at the City Hall. This alarm will be given only by order of the Mayor or Chief of Police.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PUBLIC.

Facilities are given to the post-office officials in the discharge of their daily duties, and greater security afforded to the public, by careful attention to the following recommendations:

Make the address on letters legible and complete, giving the name of the post-office, county and State. The name of the street and number of the house should also be given on letters addressed to cities where letter carriers are employed; while the letter will eventually reach its destination without a number, the omission is often a cause of hesitation and delay. In the case of letters for places in foreign countries, the name of the country as well as the post-office should be given in full. Letters addressed, for instance, merely to "London," without adding "England," are frequently sent to London, Canada, and vice versa, thereby causing delay, and often serious loss.

Postage rate thereon, one cent for each ounce or fractional part thereof.

REGISTRATION OF DOMESTIC LETTERS.

Letters may be registered on payment of a fee of ten cents in addition to the regular letter rate of postage, but the Government takes no responsibility for safe carriage, or compensation in case of loss. Postmasters are required to register all letters properly presented for that purpose, but no letters are to be registered on Sunday.

Third and fourth class matter may also be registered, but must be unsealed, fully prepaid at the proper rates, and conform to all requirements.

POSTAL CARDS.

The object of the postal card is to facilitate letter correspondence, and provide for the transmission, through the mails, at a reduced rate of postage, of short communications, either printed or written in pencil or ink. They may, therefore, be used for orders, invitations, notices, receipts, acknowledgments, price lists, and other requirements of business and social life; and the matter desired to be conveyed may be either in writing or in print, or partially in both. The postage of one cent is paid by the stamp impressed on these cards to any office in the United States, and no further payment is required. No card is a "postal card" except such as are issued by the Post-Office Department. According to the provisions of the Treaty of Berne, postal cards may be sent to the following named countries (or others included in the General Postal Union), on the prepayment of postage two cents, viz: Algeria, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Egypt, France, Germany, Great Britain and Ireland, Greece, Holland, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Russia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, and Turkey; also to Newfoundland, on prepayment of two cents, and to Canada same as domestic.

POSTAL MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

The money order system is intended to promote public convenience, and to secure safety in the transfer, through the mails, of small sums of money. All principal Post Offices receive money and issue drafts for the same upon other Post Offices, subject to the following charges and regulations:

Domestic Rates.—On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents; over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

Canadian Rates.—On orders not exceeding $10, 20 cents; over $10 and not exceeding $20, 40 cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, 60 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, 80 cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, $1.

British, Swiss, German and Italian Rates.—On orders not exceeding $10, 25 cents; over $10 and not exceeding $20, 50 cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, 75 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, $1; over $40 and not exceeding $50, $1.25.

A money order may be issued for any amount from one cent up to fifty dollars inclusive, but fractional parts of a cent must not be introduced into any money order or account. When a larger sum than fifty dollars is required, additional orders to make it up must be obtained. Not more than three orders of fifty dollars each can be remitted by one person each day to one payee.

An order is only payable at the office upon which it is drawn. The order should be collected within one year from its date. After once paying an order by whomsoever presented, provided the required information has been given by the party who presented it, the Department will not hold itself liable to any further claim, but in case of improper payment of an order, will endeavor to recover the amount for the owner.

FREE POSTAL DELIVERY.

The Free Postal Delivery System is similer to the one so successfully maintained in several of the large Eastern cities. There are forty-two districts, each of which is in charge of a carrier, who delivers promptly all mail matter received at the Post Office, upon which is written the correct address, street and number of the party for whom it is intended.

All persons who desire their letters, etc., retained until called for, must leave their address at the Post-Office.

CHURCHES.

BAPTIST.

First Baptist Church.

Location, north side of Eddy street, between Jones and Leavenworth. Pastor Rev. E. H. Gray D. D., residence Blundell House, southeast corner of Fifth and Market streets.

This church was organized in June, 1849, under the labors of its first Pastor, Rev. O. C. Wheeler. The society purchased a lot on Washington Street, between Dupont and Stockton, in the Spring of that year, for the sum of $10,000, and erected a wooden edifice thereon. It was dedicated in August, 1849, and was the first Protestant house of worship erected in California. Mr. Wheeler's pastorate ended in November, 1851. He was succeeded by the Rev. B. Brierly in May, 1852, who officiated until May, 1858. In July, 1859, Rev. D. B. Cheney was called to the pastorate, and continued in charge until 1867, when he was forced to resign on account of ill-health. After his resignation, Rev. C. A. Buckbee officiated as pastorate supply until the arrival of Rev. J. B. Thomas, February, 1868, who continued in charge until December, 1868, when he also was compelled by ill-health to resign. The Rev. A. R. Medbury took charge in November, 1870, and officiated until June 1, 1872, being succeeded by the Rev. E. B. Hulbert, who officiated as Pastor until December, 1877, when he resigned, on account of ill-health, and was succeeded by the Rev. G. T. Abbott, who officiated until January 1, 1879, when he resigned, and a few months after the present pastor, Rev. G. H. Gray, took charge.

During the Summer of 1857 a substantial brick edifice was erected on the site of the old edifice, in which the congregation worshipped until the Summer of 1875, when the lot and building was sold for the sum of $29,500, and the erection of the present place of worship immediately commenced. Services were first held in the vestry of this building the fourth Sunday in January, 1876. While the edifice was being erected, the congregation worshipped in Washington Hall.

From this church the Columbia Square Baptist Church was organized, December, 1862; the Tabernacle Baptist Church, December, 1865; the San Pablo Baptist Church, February, 1867, and the Fifth Baptist Church, September, 1869.

Number of communicants, three hundred. The Sabbath School has an average attendance of about two hundred and fifty. The library contains about one thousand volumes.

The Metropolitan Baptist Church is the result of a union of the Tabernacle Church, formerly worshipping on Post street, between Hyde and Larkin, and the Second Church, formerly worshipping on Russ Street, near Columbia Square. Each of these churches, about January 1st, 1875, called to their pastorate Rev. I. S. Kalloch, of Leavenworth, Kansas. He visited them in February, 1875, and the result of his visit was the consolidation of the two churches and a united call to Dr. Kalloch to become their Pastor, which he accepted, and entered upon his labors March 1st, 1875.

The church, mainly through the Christian liberality and enterprise of one of its members, Deacon Isaac Lankershim, has since built the Metropolitan Temple, at a cost of $150,000. The main audience hall accommodates three thousand persons. The lecture room, with parlors adjoining, accommodates six hundred. Divine services are held every Sunday at eleven o'clock A. M. and half-past seven o'clock P.M. Young People's Meeting, Monday evening. Church Prayer Meeting, Wednesday evening.

In 1867, the congregation purchased the building and grounds formerly occupied by the Howard Presbyterian Church, at a cost of $10,000, where services were held until the Fall of 1868, when an exchange was made for the present site, and a church edifice erected thereon. t.

is church was organized July 29, 1849, when mas Douglas and Frederick S. Hawley were chosen cons, and inducted into office on the following Sun-
by Rev. T. D. Hunt, assisted by Rev. A. Williams. The Society met in the school house on the Plaza, until it was required for other purposes, when the members were deprived of a regular place of meeting for several months. As early as practicable, however, efforts were made for the erection of a suitable house of worship, which resulted in the building of a commodious frame structure, twenty-five by fifty feet, on the corner of Jackson and Virginia streets, which was dedicated to the worship of God February 10, 1850. Rev. T. D. Hunt was chosen Pastor, and installed June 26, 1850, who, in this connection, it is proper to state, was the first Protestant clergyman, located as such, in the State, having arrived in San Francisco as early as October 29, 1848. He was immediately invited by the citizens, in a meeting called for the purpose, to act as their chaplain for one year, commencing November 1, 1848, in which capacity he was laboring at the time of the organization of this church. The congregation increased so greatly as to require a larger house. Accordingly measures were adopted, in the Summer of 1852, for the erection of the substantial brick edifice on the southwest corner of California and Dupont streets, which was dedicated on the tenth of July, 1853. The second pastor, Rev. E. S. Lacy, was installed July 6, 1856, and dismissed October 3, 1865. In the Spring of 1870, the society deemed it essential to seek a different location and larger accommodations. Measures were taken which resulted in the erection of the present large and commodious house of worship. The dimensions are ninety-two feet frontage on Post street by a depth of one hundred and thirty-five on Mason street, and is ninety feet to the apex of the roof. The seating accommodations on ordinary occasions are for about seventeen hundred persons, but it will comfortably receive two thousand. The basement is divided into lecture-room, class room, infant class room, ladies' room, library, and lumber room, which are provided with all the necessary lavatories and conveniences. The basement rooms are so arranged that they can all be thrown into one apartment during exercises or for social purposes. It was dedicated on the nineteenth day of May, 1872. The entire cost of this beautiful structure (including the site and furnishing) somewhat exceeds $150,000. The third and present pastor, Rev. A. L. Stone, D. D., was installed June 14, 1866

The whole number of members admitted to the church since its organization is about eleven hundred and fifty. The present membership is about five hundred and fifty.

Services are held every Sabbath at eleven o'clock A. M., and at half past seven o'clock P. M. between the first of September and first of May, and at forty-five minutes past seven o'clock P. M. during the other months of the year. Lecture every Wednesday at half past seven o'clock P. M.

Plymouth Congregational Church.

Location, east side of Taylor street, between Geary and O'Farrell. Rev. T. K. Noble, Pastor; residence, 2200 Steiner street.

This church was organized on the twelfth of January, 1862, with twenty-six members. It grew out of a Sunday School which had been maintained in the building, corner, of Mason and Geary streets, known as the "Little Brown Church." Here public worship was established in the Autumn of 1861, and the Rev. John Kimball engaged to take charge of the enterprise. He began his very diligent and successful labors in November, 1861, and continued in them until January, 1863, when he resigned and went to the East to do service in the armies of his country. In December, 1862, the church and society invited the Rev. J. A. Benton, of Sacramento, to become their Pastor. After a faithful pastorate of six years he resigned to take the position of professor in the Pacific Theological Seminary at Oakland. After a vacancy of about four years, during which the Revs. E. G. The present edifice on Taylor street, which was dedicated April 10, 1864, is a structure forty-seven and a half by ninety-two feet, with a spire one hundred and fifty feet high. It is complete in all its parts and arrangements, having a basement under the whole, divided into lecture room, ladies' parlor, and infant class room. It has a Pastor's study in the rear. Third Congregational Church.

Location, south side of Fifteenth Street, near Mission. Rev. E. F. Walker, Acting Pastor; residence, 34 Erie street. Number of members, one hundred and seventy.

This church had its origin in the Fall of 1862, when several persons, heads of families, residing in the vicinity of the Mission Dolores, met to consult together in regard to the practicability of organizing a church in the neighborhood.

After much discussion, extending through several informal meetings, it was decided to extend an invitation to the Rev. E. G. Beckwith, then pursuing his theological studies at Andover, Mass., to visit this city, and, upon the organization of a Congregational Church at the Mission, to become its Pastor. The invitation was accepted, and Mr. Beckwith, with his family, arrived on Sunday, the twenty-sixth day of October, 1862, and on the next Sabbath he preached his first sermon to his future church and society. The following Sabbath he organized a Sabbath School.

On January 7, 1863, the organization of the church was completed, and on the 8th of February following, the installation services took place in the old church edifice on First Avenue.

After five years of faithful labor, Mr. Beckwith resigned the pastorate, much to the regret of his congregation. From October, 1867, to April, 1869, the church was without a settled Pastor, the Rev. Selah Merrill supplying its pulpit from December, 1867, to June, 1868. In August, 1868, the Rev. William C. Pond was invited to fill the pulpit for the period of six months, at the expiration of which time he accepted a call from the congregation to become their settled Pastor, and continued in charge until the Fall of 1872. Since that time the Rev. Edward P. Baker and Rev E. F. Walker have officiated as acting Pastors.

From November 2, 1862, until October 30, 1864, the old Methodist church edifice on First Avenue, which had become private property, was occupied by the church and society as a place of worship. The first services in the present chapel were held on the 6th day of November, 1864. The total cost of lot, building, and furniture was $14,000.

Services are held every Sabbath at eleven o'clock A. M. and half past seven o'clock P. M. Prayer Meeting every Wednesday evening.

The Sabbath School was organized November 5, 1862. Its first session was held on Sunday, November 9, of the same year, the total attendance being thirty-three. At present the average attendance is about three hundred and fifty. Meets immediately after morning service.

The building occupied by the society is of wood, and is neatly finished. It has an organ worth $2,000. The edifice cost about $5,000, exclusive of the amount ($5,000) paid for the lot. The dedication services occurred in March, 1865.

SAN FRANCISCO LAUNDRY The Largest Laundry Establishment on the Pacific Coast OFFICE, 33 GEARY ST.

. MACDONOUGH, CUMBERLAND, LEHIGH AND ENGLISH FOUNDRY CO.
41 Market Street, corner Spear.

This is the oldest parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church on the Pacific Coast.

It had its beginning in Divine Service, celebrated by the Rev. Flavel S. Mines and the Rev. Augustus Fitch, Presbyters of the Diocese of New York, on the eighth day of July, 1849.

On the twenty-second of the same month, several citizens resolved to form themselves into a congregation, to be known hereafter as the Holy Trinity Church. On the twenty-ninth of July, wardens and vestrymen were elected, and on the sixth of August the Rev. Mr. Mines was elected Rector.

A fifty-vara lot on the southwest corner of Jackson and Powell streets was purchased August 26, and a church edifice erected thereon, which was occupied the following November. In December, 1851, a lot on the north side of Pine street, between Montgomery and Kearny streets, was purchased for the sum of $4,000, and a wooden edifice, forty by ninety feet, covered with corrugated iron, erected thereon. The first services in this church were held January 25, 1852. On the twenty-seventh of February of the same year the name of the corporation was changed from the "Church of the Holy Trinity," to "Trinity Church." The Rev. Flavel S. Mines died August 5, 1852; greatly lamented by all his parishioners. He was succeeded by the Rev. C. B. Wyatt, who commenced his official duties February 26, 1853. On Sunday, the twenty-ninth of January, 1854, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Kip, D.D., landed in San Francisco, and preached in Trinity Church both morning and evening. On the ninth of April, 1854, being the Sunday before Easter, the rite of confirmation was administered in Trinity Church. This was the first Episcopal act ever performed on the shores of the Pacific. Eighteen persons came forward to receive the rite—one of them being a native of China. In May, 1856, Dr. Wyatt returned to New York on a visit, and the Rev. S. Chipman Thrall, D.D., was placed in charge of the church until March, 1857, when Mr. Wyatt resigned, and Dr. Thrall was elected his successor, who officiated until November, 1862, when he resigned, and the Rev. C. B. Wyatt was again elected Rector. In November, 1863, a fifty-vara lot, on the corner of Powell and Post streets, was purchased for the sum of $25,000, and subsequently an adjoining lot on the east, at an additional cost of $5,000. The lot and building on Pine street was sold in September, 1866, for $70,000, and during the same month the corner stone of the present edifice was laid. It was consecrated to divine service on the twenty-second of September, 1867. During the construction of the new church the congregation worshiped in St. John's Hall, Masonic Temple. In the spring of 1869 Mr. Wyatt resigned, and was succeeded by the Rev. Elias Birdsall, who officiated until May, 1870, when he also resigned. The Rev. C. W. Turner then took charge of the parish, and officiated until January, 1871. He was succeeded by the Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, who officiated until July 1, 1873, when he resigned, and the Rev. G. D. Silliman took charge, and continued to officiate till March 1st, 1875. The Rev. Dr. Beers having in the meantime been elected Rector, entered upon his duties about the middle of March, 1875.

Grace Church.

Location, southeast corner of California and Stockton streets. Rev. William H. Platt, Rector; residence, 1407 Jones street.

This church was organized in 1849, the statistics of which may be summed up as follows: The first Rector of the church was Dr. J. L. Ver Mehr, who preached his first sermon in California at the house of Mr. Merrill, in this city, September 10, 1849. A chapel was next built toward the close of 1849, at the corner of Powell and John streets, which was first opened for Divine services December 30, 1849. This was the first Grace Church. It was sixty feet long by twenty feet wide, and cost $8,000. On the 28th of April, 1850, Grace Church was formally organized. E. Bryant and D. S. Turner were elected Wardens, and Dr. Ver Mehr chosen Rector. The first vestry meeting was held on May 20, 1850. In February, 1851, the contract was made to build the former Grace Church on Powell Street, which was finished that Summer. Dr. Ver Mehr preached the first sermon in this edifice. Bishop Kip arrived in San Francisco January 29, 1854, and on the twenty-fifth day of February following assumed the Rectorship, at which time Dr. Ver Mehr resigned. The Bishop continued to officiate until Palm Sunday, April 5, 1857, when F. C. Ewer was ordained, and on the next Sunday he preached his first sermon. On the fourteenth of April, Mr. Ewer was elected to be Assistant Minister, and on the twentieth of the same month he took charge of the parish, the Bishop having departed for the Atlantic States. The Bishop having returned and resigned the Rectorship, Mr. Ewer was elected Rector of the church, December 15, 1857, and retained that position until April, 1861, when he resigned. At the earnest solicitation of the Vestry, Bishop Kip again became Rector, and served as such until October, 1864. Rev. H. Goodwin being then Assistant Minister, continued as such, when in September, 1866, he was elected Rector, and on the first of July, 1867, resigned. The Rev. James S. Bush was then elected Rector; he entered upon his duties in December following, and officiated until the Fall of 1872, when he resigned, and was succeeded by the Rev. Charles G. Williamson, who officiated until June, 1873. The present Rector entered upon the discharge of his duties November, 1873. Soon after, he resigned and went to Louisville, Ky., but at the urgent call of the Vestry returned in the Spring of 1874, and has since continued as Rector.

The corner stone of the present church edifice was laid by Bishop Kip in May, 1860. The building is one hundred and thirty-five feet deep, and sixty-two feet wide. Height, from floor to apex of roof, sixty-six feet. The edifice was first opened for public worship September 28, 1862, and was consecrated on the third day of May, 1868. Cost over $100,000.

St. John's Church.

Location, northeast corner Fifteenth and Valencia streets. Rev. Alfred Todhunter, Rector; residence, southeast corner Fifteenth and Valencia.

This church was established in November, 1857, the Rev. John Chittenden, President of the San Francisco College, then a lay reader, licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese, officiating as its Minister. The parish, of which this is the church, was instituted in February, 1858. The inhabitants are indebted mainly to the liberality of a few individuals and the Rev. John Chittenden for the first introduction of this church service into the neighborhood. The Rev. J. Cameron, ordained in April, 1860, officiated as Curate, the Rev. John Chittenden being his Rector. By the energy of the Curate, assisted by his brother clergymen, he established the Episcopal Church permanently in this vicinity. The Rev. T. W. Brotherton took charge on the first of August, 1861, and was succeeded by Rev. Elias Birdsall, July 1, 1872, who officiated until 1876, when the present Rector took charge. The first of August, 1862, a church edifice was commenced on a lot presented by the ladies of the congregation to the Vestry, which was finished in November of the same year, and is capable of accommodating three hundred and fifty persons. The parsonage adjoining the church, was built during the incumbency of the present Rector, and was completed September, 1877. Services are held every Sunday at eleven eleven o'clock A. St. Luke's Church.

Location, south side of Pacific street between Polk street and Van Ness Avenue. Rev. S. Gregory Lines, Rector; residence, 1222 Pine street.

The first services of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Spring Valley, which led to the organization of this church, were held by the Rev. Giles Easton, Assistant Rector of Grace Church, in Spring Valley School House, on Broadway street, between Larkin and Polk, on the fourth of March, 1866.

A Sunday School was shortly after organized, with Mr. John Wigmore as Superintendent, and Mr. Edward Barry as Librarian. The Mission was at that time called St. Andrew's Church.

On the twelfth of August, 1866, Rev. D. J. Lee took charge of the Mission, and changed the place of holding service to Pixley Hall, on the corner of Pacific and Polk streets. Shortly after, a society of ladies, under the name of Martha Society, was formed for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase a lot and to erect a church building thereon. About this time the name of the Mission was changed to the Church of the Nativity.

The Rev. Dr. Lee having resigned in October, 1867, Rev F. O. Barstow was appointed as missionary to the station. After the resignation of Mr. Barstow, the vestry elected the Rev. J. B. Gray, Rector, who entered upon his duties the first Sunday in September, 1869. The Rev. E. S. Peake succeeded to the Rectorship December 1, 1870, and officiated until June, 1878, when he was succeeded by the present Rector.

In March, 1868, the ladies of the Martha Society having been requested to furnish a name for the Church suggested St. Luke's, under which the parish was incorporated. The building now occupied by the congregation was completed September 26, 1868, and consecrated April 13, 1873. It was enlarged, and a Guild room added, December, 1878. The church will now accommodate over three hundred persons.

The church is supported by offerings and monthly subscriptions, and seats are free. Services are held every Sunday at eleven o'clock A.M. and at half past seven o'clock P. M; and on Saints' Days, and other Holy Days at eleven o'clock A. M. Sunday School meets at half past nine o'clock A. M.

St. Peter's Church.

Location, northeast corner of Stockton and Filbert streets. Rev. M. C. Lightner, Rector; residence, corner of Eighteenth and Guerrero.

This parish was organized in July, 1867, through the zealous efforts of several earnest laymen, with a view to supplying the large population resident in that portion of the city known as North Beach, with the ministrations of the church. On many accounts a difficult field of labor, it is hoped that in time, through faith and earnest missionary zeal, a self-supporting parish will be established. The parish is incorporated, and also admitted into communion with the Diocesan Convention.

The church building was erected at a cost of $4,500, and accommodates three hundred, the sittings being free.

St. Stephen's Church.

Location, north side of Fulton street, between Webster and Fillmore. Rev. Edgar J. Lion, Rector; residence, 723 Grove street.

This church was organized early in the year 1879, upon the basis of the congregation, which had been gathered by the mission services, conducted in the locality during the preceding four years. The church building now occupied is on the rear of the lot owned by the parish, it being the intention of the Vestry to build a suitable church edifice within the next few years in front of the present structure, which will then be converted into and used exclusively as a Parish School.

The congregation now numbers about two hundred and fifty. Services are held on Sundays at eleven o'clock A.M. and a quarter to eight P.M. The Sunday School, which numbers about two hundred, meets at half past nine o'clock A.M.

All Saints' Episcopal Church.

Location, Grand Central Hall, corner of Market and Sixth streets. Rev. W. Fred. Morrison, Rector; residence, 1429½ Mission street.

This church was organized November 1, 1878, and owes its origin to a desire for service upon the Cathedral or choral order among many of our Episcopal people, as well as in some measure to supply a local want. Although as yet under only a temporary organization, the membership numbers one hundred and fifty, the congregation averages over two hundred, and the Sunday School has an attendance of sixty. The Sunday School meets at ten o'clock A.M. Church services at eleven A.M. and half past seven P.M. The music in the church service is performed by a surpliced choir of boys. Connected with the church is a very efficient guild divided into four departments: social, musical, visiting, and boys club; it meets on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Our Saviour's Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Rev. I. L. P. Dietrichson, Pastor; residence, 18 Sherman street.

This church was organized on the twentieth of October, 1870, by the Rev. Christian Hvistendahl, who came to San Francisco under the auspices of the Norwegian Lutheran Synod of America, and was the first Scandinavian Church on the Pacific Coast. Having labored here for six weeks, he went to the East; but returned in April, 1871, in accordance with a unanimous call from the congregation to become their Pastor. In June, 1872, he visited the Scandinavian countries, principally for the sake of his health, and returned in October to resume his labors. About the beginning of the year 1879 the society purchased the property on Sherman street for $10,500, and have remodelled the building for church purposes, the additional expenditure being about $4,000. The progress of the church has been heretofore much retarded by the three or four unsuccessful attempts at organization made in the past twelve years, and the work of raising funds for the purchase of the present property was accompanied with much difficulty. This accomplished, the future of the church is now assured, and its prospects are encouraging. A Ladies' Society to promote the interests of the church and for the relief of poor Scandinavians has lately been organized. Services in the Scandinavian language Sundays and holidays at half-past ten o'clock, A. M. The seats are always free, and strangers are welcome. Its membership is now one hundred and twenty-five.

E. Church in California has grown, until it now numbers over seven thousand members.

The present beautiful edifice was erected in 1871, at a cost of $25,000. Its spire is one of the most graceful in the city, and all its adornments are in exquisite taste, without extravagance.

PRESBYTERIAN.

First Presbyterian Church

Location, west side of Stockton street, between Washington and Clay. Rev. Philo F. Phelps, Acting Pastor; residence, 1116 Jackson street.

This church was organized May 20, 1849, under the direction of Rev. Albert Williams, and was the first Protestant church organized in San Francisco. W.W. Caldwell, Frederick Billings, Dr. George F. Turner, Mrs. Sarah B. Gillespie, Mrs. Ann Hodgson, and Mrs. Margaret A. Geary were the original members; Captain B. Simmons, E. Woodruff, and H. Grimes were the first Trustees.

During the Summer of 1849 the congregation worshipped in a tent on Dupont street, afterward in a store room of the Custom House, and in the Superior Court Room, City Hall, until January 19, 1851, when a neat Gothic edifice was erected on Stockton street, near Broadway, capable of holding seven hundred persons. This house was destroyed by the great fire of June 22, 1851. A plain building was immediately erected on the same spot, in which the congregation worshipped until August, 1857; and from that time until May, 1858, their meetings were held in the Chinese Mission Chapel. Their present fine house of worship was built in the Summer and Autumn of 1857, at a cost of about $80,000, including the lot, furniture, and fixtures. It is in the Gothic style of architecture throughout. The main building is one hundred and seventeen feet long, or to the outside of the tower, one hundred and twenty-three feet, and is sixty-one feet wide. Rooms for the Pastor's study and social meetings are on the same floor with the audience room, which last is eighty-one by fifty-eight feet, with a ceiling thirty-nine feet high. A Sabbath School room, fifty-seven by thirty-six feet, is over the front apartments; on the northeast corner of the house is a brick tower, ninety-six feet in height. There is an organ gallery that will seat a choir of forty persons, and contains one of the largest and handsomest organs in the city. In all its arrangements the edifice is admirably adapted to its purpose, and at the same time is in accordance with true architectural taste.

The church is entirely free from debt. Present number of communicants is about one hundred and ninety.

This church, founded by the Rev. John Maginnis in 1851, was originally located on the corner of Market and Annie streets, where the congregation worshipped, and a large and flourishing Sunday School was maintained until the early part of 1872, when the present commodious edifice was completed. The interior of the new church is a vast space of ninety feet in width by one hundred and sixty in length, and seventy-five feet high, to the crown of the ceiling of the nave.

A mammoth organ with fifty-two stops, twenty-four feet wide, thirty-six feet high, and eighteen feet deep, and weighing ten tons, the largest on the coast, is one of the attractions of the church. The belfry, one hundred feet from the ground, contains a beautiful chime of bells, presented to the church by Peter Donahue, Esq. The total cost of this great structure is about $175,000. Its lofty spire, supporting a large cross richly gilded with gold, two hundred and forty feet high, is one of the most conspicuous objects in the city.

The Rev. Horatio Stebbins, of Portland, Maine, who had received an unanimous call from the society, became the permanent Pastor the following September. Since then the society has enjoyed its accustomed prosperity.

SAN FRANCISCO FEMALE HOSPITAL.—Location, 930 Clay street. This hospital was opened for the reception of patients on the first day of April, 1868. The object of the institution is the care of poor, sick women. There is no rule as to the nativity, religion, or social condition. It is a charity in the broadest sense of the term. Any woman who is poor and sick is entitled to share its benefits. It is a general hospital for all diseases, and for lying-in. During the twelve years it has been open there have been nearly one thousand births. Of the whole number of births over fifty per cent. have been illegitimate, showing conclusively the need of such an institution, as, if it were not for this hospital, the probabilities are that the greater number would have shared the fate of so many thousands of innocents murdered in their mothers' womb. There have been besides a large number of patients admitted for general disease. There have also been a very large number of outside patients treated, the physician and surgeon being in attendance every morning from ten to eleven o'clock to treat any poor persons who may come. It was supported by voluntary contributions until 1870, when the State appropriated $5,000 a year for its support. In 1879 the appropriation was reduced to $3,000. The Hospital is under the care of Dr. C. B. Hutchins.

Said children will be considered foundlings.

The Trustees design to make this institution in the highest degree respectable and efficient, and available to women throughout every county in the State, regardless of religion, sectarianism, or nationality. Those who are in a position to pay will be required to do so, therefore, all applicants are questioned as to their ability to pay for the accomodations offered by this institution. But each must give satisfactory proof of having heretofore sustained a good moral character, and been esteemed respectable. It is expected that the institution will be supported by receipts from patients, donations, and contributions from different sources, appropriations by the City and State Governments, and, in time, by bequests, legacies, etc. It is a special hospital, and for the specialties for which it was organized affords facilities not to be found elsewhere on this coast. No cases of disease are admitted for treatment. It is therefore expected that it will be kept free from erysipelas and other contagious diseases that become the bane of lying-in wards connected with general hospitals. It is thoroughly ventilated, and will afford all the comfort that is to be found in the best conducted homes, and free from all intrusion. Competent nurses are in attendance day and night.

For consultation the attending physician will be found at the Hospital, 913 Tyler street, from eleven to twelve o'clock A. M., daily (Sundays excepted), or at his residence, 20 Twelfth street, from half-past eight to nine o'clock A. M., and from half-past six to seven o'clock P. M. Letters of inquiry should be directed to Dr. Benjamin F. Hardy, 20 Twelfth street, San Francisco, California, inclosing a stamped envelope, properly superscribed with the name and address of the applicant.

The Home was opened for the reception of orphan children, October 1, 1870, and is now occupied by eighty-four children, who are receiving shelter and education beneath its roof. $40,000 has been expended in its erection, and about $100,000 in support of its inmates. It is in a complete and exact sense a public charity, openly inviting the homeless from all portions of the States of California and Nevada, to share in its beneficences. It derives its name from the fact of its erection by the Good Templars and its support by that Order. It is also under the control of the Grand Lodge of the Order, but its title is not meant to convey any idea of exclusiveness as to the class admitted to its sheltering offices. To be a homeless orphan is the only passport required at its portals.
